

2019 Eau Claire Healthy Communities Champion Awards

Eau Claire Healthy Communities is a local coalition, made up of over 250 volunteers from the community working together to promote the health and well-being of individuals, families and communities of Eau Claire County through collaborative and focused action.

Award Criteria:

The Eau Claire Healthy Communities Champion Awards are a way to recognize individual and organizational community efforts to promote healthy living. We present one award in each category annually: individual and organization.

- Nominations for the Eau Claire Healthy Communities Champion Award can be made by a person or group. They may nominate an individual or organization for the award.
- The individual or organization must showcase exceptional effort to promote healthy living in the following health focus areas: Chronic Disease Prevention, Healthy Relationship Promotion, High-Risk Drinking Prevention, Mental Health, Substance Abuse or Oral Health Promotion.
- The individual or organization is not required to be a member of Eau Claire Healthy Communities to be nominated.

Award Timeline:

- Friday, March 29th - Applications due
- Thursday, April 11th - Healthy Communities Steering Committee will review application materials submitted and select the Eau Claire Healthy Communities Champion Award winners. Two winners will be selected and notified: one for individual and one for organization.
- Thursday, April 25th - Award will be presented to winners at the Annual Healthy Communities Celebration.
